MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : [REDACTED]
Deputy Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT : Invitation to Participate in a Hoover Institution
Sponsored Seminar

1. Action: Accept or decline the invitation to participate in a Hoover Institution Seminar at Stanford University.

2. Background: Hoover Institution Director [REDACTED] has invited you to participate in one of the Hoover Seminars as your schedule permits. The purpose of the Hoover Seminars is to promote an exchange of views on current policy matters between prominent members of the executive branch of the government and the scholars of the Institution [REDACTED]. Members of the Administration that have participated are Edwin Meese III, Attorney General William French Smith and Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger. Admiral Turner also previously addressed this group. President Ronald Reagan has been an Honorary Fellow since 1975. [REDACTED] the Chairman of the Institution's Domestic Studies Advisory Committee, was the 1982 recipient of the Nobel Prize in Economics; and Five Nobel Laureates, one Congressional Medal of Honor winner, and two Presidential Medal of Freedom winners are now associated with the Hoover Institution.

The Seminar's usual format is an informal morning or afternoon discussion with the Institution's scholars. A suggested hour agenda is 10-15 minutes of remarks by you followed by a general discussion period; however, the Institution is flexible in the type of arrangement. Based on your preference, you could address only the Institution's scholars or you can elect to include Stanford's faculty and students.

3. Recommendation: None; indicate your intention and have Public Affairs send appropriate letter of acceptance or regret.
